

The first annual all-day
North Texas Conference for Library
Program Planners and Presenters:

“GET 'EM IN!!”

will be

Thursday, November 20, 2008

at the

Lockheed Martin Recreation Area at

3400 Bryant Irvin Rd.,

Ft. Worth, TX 76109

(Map: <http://www.ntrls.org/maps/lockheed.pdf>)

Keynote address: Marketing Without Money

By Emmy award-winning TV reporter, Jeff Crilley

For details, visit <http://www.librarypresentationsnetwork.com/conferencenews.html>

Fee: $15 if paid by November 10; $20 after November 10 or at the door

Lunch will be provided for all who register, but lunches for those who register at the door will arrive 15-30 minutes later and be served separately.

Please register online at <http://www.NTRLS.org> and follow payment instructions provided there in order to complete your registration. No refunds will be issued after November 10, 2008.

Designed for folks responsible for presenting and/or coordinating library programs, the event will include:

- Training sessions
- Presenter showcases
- Dedicated time to visit exhibits– which will feature presenters-for-hire as well as programming product vendors and service providers
- Time for networking with your peers
- Lunch and refreshments

Eric's Circle

There will be time immediately following the conference for a round-robin sharing of presentation skills. From 4 p.m. until the last person leaves or 6 p.m., whichever comes first, library staff and supporters, professional presenters, exhibitors and even members of the general public are invited to participate in Eric's Circle. Named for Rhythm Web's Drum Guy Eric Stuer who passed away in June, this session will be an opportunity to see one another in action, share material and fun, participate in activities led by others and simply appreciate the various skills among those who attend the conference.

Bring your instruments, stories, songs, poems, show and tell or ... whatever!
